Executive Briefing Center

Executive Briefing Center

Located in Centennial, Colorado, Quantum's Executive Briefing Center is an innovative conference center that showcases Quantum's integrated solutions to business, executive and strategic stakeholders. Meet with our executives, software architects, product managers and experts to achieve a deeper understanding and experience how Quantum solves the complex video and rich media infrastructure challenges of today and tomorrow.

Tech Center & Showcase

While visiting the Executive Briefing Center, you will have the ability to engage in hands-on learning in our Tech Center! Quantum's Tech Center has been developed to provide interactive demonstrations of our latest technology and show our working innovation center—the hub of where we help the world's largest cloud companies efficiently manage exabytes of data, the largest automakers build safe autonomous vehicles, manufacturers of complex products manage and analyze imagery and video for quality assurance, and much more! Demos include our high-performance SAN and NAS, parallel file system, tape backup and archive systems, storage management and other key technologies from our portfolio.

“We invite you to visit our Executive Briefing Center where you can meet with our executives, engineers, software architects, product managers and experts to collaborate and engage in interactive demonstrations. We would be honored to learn about your most difficult challenges and help your organization reach its full potential.”

Jamie Lerner, Chief Executive Officer, Quantum

Executive Briefings

A personalized experience designed with one idea in mind: collaboration. Your Executive Briefing is completely customized to your business needs. We provide an environment where you can explore and strategize openly with the best and brightest, while providing insight and clarity for your digital strategy.

Executive Field Briefings

We bring the Executive Briefing experience to a location near you. Our executives and subject matter experts are located strategically around the globe and are committed to accelerating your transformation.

Focused Briefings

We dig a little deeper. A Focused Briefing is an engagement focused on a particular application, solution or vertical. Our industry experts will work with you first hand, showing you how Quantum can meet your needs.

Tours

Learn and explore—take a tour through our facilities and collaborate with our executives and subject matter experts in a discussion tailored for you. Attending a Quantum Executive Briefing will minimize the time it takes your organization to make informed decisions and plan for the future. It's also the best way to learn about Quantum technology and products, how we can make a difference in your business, and about emerging industry trends.

Enjoy Beautiful Colorado

Known for its colors and beauty, Colorado has something to offer all year round. Close to Denver International Airport, our office in Centennial is also conveniently located close to the famed Red Rocks Amphitheatre, as well as some of the nation's best restaurants. If the weather permits, get a round of golf in at Topgolf, or hike to one of the many awe-inspiring views.

With so much to do and see, both inside and outside of the Briefing Center, you'll be asking, "Can I come back?"

We look forward to seeing you soon!
